special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERAL Privisuro, July 17,-Twelve hotels and saloons of Homestead were raided this afternoon in the largest roundup in pursuit of prohibition violators ever made in this district. Two Pittsburg agents, C. C. Gregg and S. M. Palmer, the first named of whom, with T. M. McGrath, led the party, cooperated with a large group of inspectors brought here from other territory.

More than $00 gallons of whiskey were confiscated during the raid and were loaded on a truck to be taken to the office of J. W. Conser, prohibition agent in charge of the Pittaburg dis-trict, who planned the raid.

Search warrants with which the party ere provided were obtained by means of evidence obtained by the Rev. W. M. spector. The minister accompanied the officials know nothing of her acquain-raiding party, visiting all the places tance with Eiwell. At present she is on stead two years and has had many clashes with the authorities over gam-bling, which he said flourished in the orough.

According to a persistent report, Commissioner Kramer came with the raiders. This was denied at the offices of prohibition agents in the Bowman building and efforts to find him were without

Most of the saloons where it has been possible to get whiskey and other drinks containing alcohol clamped the lid on yes-terday as seen as it became known that the imported agents had arrived and, compared with many preceding Saturdays, the day was dry.

GOT ELWELL CHECK FOR $200 AS BRIDE

Another Woman Now Appears in Mystery.

The name of another woman was dragged into the investigation into the death of Joseph Bowne Elwell yesterday. This woman was married last October and, according to statements made yesterday to officials here, she received a check for $300 from the whist expert and turfman at the time of her mar-riage, with a request that she expend it upon some article suitable as a wedding gift. Her husband was formerly an officer in the American Expeditionary

So far as could be learned yesterday there is nothing to indicate that this woman saw anything of Elwell within several months of the time of his death. Woodfin, paster of the First Presby-terian Church of Homestead, who re-cently was appointed a prohibition ina pleasure tour with her husband.

Although most of the local officials have abandoned work on the Elwell on the strength of evidence obtained by mystery, now six weeks old, there is one the Rev. Mr. Woodfin and other Home-stead church and civic workers, who tinues to delve into the affairs of a man also obtained commissions as dry agents who is suspected of having visited Eland aided him.
